

U.S. General Services Administration (GSA)
Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU)

Agency Overview

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) is one of the federal government's largest buyers, contracting for billions of dollars' worth of products and services each year for its U.S. government "customers." These customers include most agencies of the executive, judicial, and legislative branches and federal government and military facilities worldwide. GSA rents, builds, furnishes, and maintains government offices and buys products ranging from pens to state-of-the-art computers. GSA also contracts for services as varied as trash removal and information technology.
